

Progressive Episcopalians of Pittsburgh

A Member of the Via Media USA Alliance

Progressive Episcopalians of Pittsburgh (PEP) is an organization of Episcopal laity and clergy in the Episcopal Diocese of Pittsburgh. PEP advocates for strong bonds with the wider Episcopal Church, for a diocesan community bound together in charity and grace, and for an inclusive and just church and society. PEP was formed in 2003 and is a founding member of Via Media USA, an alliance of similar groups based in various Episcopal dioceses that carry out programs of education and reconciliation.

We invite you to join PEP in working for a progressive Diocese of Pittsburgh and Episcopal Church. Become a member by filling out and returning this form. Membership categories are explained below.
